WOUNDED SOLDIERS TO BE GIVEN FREE VOCATIONAL TRAINING

Arrangements for the training under federal contract of wounded soldiers in vocational subjects at the University of California are being completed.

The board of regents has acknowledged receipt from the federal board of vocational education, rehabilitation division, San Francisco, of a contract form under which men invalided home from the front will receive vocational training, for which a specified fee will be paid by the national government. All text books and supplies not furnished ordinarily by the University, and in cases of men needing special treatment, all appliances and equipment, will be paid for by the federal authorities. The University, in return, will agree to instruct and train wounded men "under personal and immediate supervision" in subjects so grouped as to coincide with the needs of the individual.

LOCAL ENTHUSIAST CORNERS OUR 'PHONE OFFICIALS ONCE MORE

Dr. Henry R. Harrower, who is some fighter and also quite a good letter writer, recently gave us an opportunity to read a letter to him from Mr. C. F. Mason, manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company-at present our arch enemies, let us remember-which was later read at the mass meeting last week and commented on previously in the Glendale Evening News.

The doctor has shown us three other letters which he has written which may be of interest to our readers. It really seems that the Telephone Company will have some difficulty in giving a satisfactory answer. least we hope they cannot.

Jan. 16, '19 C. F. Mason, Esq.,

Pacific Tel. & Tel. Co., Los Angeles, California. My Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of January 11th with its contained information, all of which was wellknown to me. For some strange reason the real information desired is either refused-for cause, presumably-or so camouflaged that I am no wiser than before.

Permit me to ask in plain English and to request your answer in plainer American, is it true that your Company intends to inaugurate a toll charge for calls between Glendale and Los Angeles? If so, what is to be the charge? And under what specific authority is this action

These are plain questions and merit an equally plain answer.

May I not also ask if it is not your custom in buying various commodities to secure WRITTEN quotations and accompanying data, in advance of purchase? If so, you have my reason for this request, for I, too, am a business man like yourself. Your prompt reply, as free as pos- Fred C. Deal, Esq., sible from ambiguity will be appreci-

HE progress of Paint making has proved beyond question that White Lead and Linseed Oil alone are not efficient in producing the most permanent and satisfactory paint. Carbonate of Lead by itself is too soft, and chemical action soon causes it to chalk and rub off when exposed to the atmosphere, but the addition of Oxide of Zinc, which by itself is too hard and too transparent, neutralizes and overcomes this effect. The two combined in correct proportions, with the addition of necessary pigments, with Pure Linseed Oil scientifically incorporated, all thoroughly ground and amalgamated by powerful machinery, produce the best Paint. This is conceded by the world's foremost authorities on the subject.

TIBBETTS-OLDFIELD PAINT is so manufactured and contains more oil, will-cover more surface, will wear longer, and retain its color better than handmixed Lead and Oil Paint, or so-called Mixed Paints that are offered to the trade

OUR GUARANTEE

The Paint in each package contains the best materials obtainable, combined in correct proportions, genuine Carbonate of Lead, genuine Oxide of Zinc, purest necessary pigments (except a few solid colors that cannot be made from a white base), Pure Refined Linseed Oil, Pure Spirits of Turpentine, with sufficient Pure Dryer to insure best results.

From the desolation of battlefields to these ducky dolls of the boulevards seems indeed a far cry, yet the poupee chiffon is the craze of the moment in Paris second only to the President "Weelsong" sensa-

> Though reminiscent of the Polish dolls that were so much exploited both in Europe and America during the war, and also of the mascot rag dolls that had such vogue in Paris during the air raids and bombardments, these newest poupee chiffon are distinctly original. They are the work of different individual women artists, and artists is the right word. Each doll is a little masterpiece conceived and executed with as much art and originality as the canvas of a painter or the marble of a sculptor. There are no two alike, and each one is signed on the sole of one tiny slipper with the name of the artist.
